

Explanation of the five solas

Overview

---

According to theologian Volker Leppin, while the sola-formulations can be found in medieval theology, these did not imply the sharp exclusiveness or contrast that Martin Luther employed; they referred to a primary or activating component, for example "their sola gratia did not exclude the presence of meritorious human works." Martin Luther's theological development in the 1510s has been characterized a progression of solae as.
